Autumn Term Newsletter 4 28th September 2017

We are a Values school - This half term's value is: CREATIVITY.
Please see our website for Home/ school values based activities!

Dear Parents,

Ofsted: As you are aware, we have just had an Ofsted inspection on Tuesday and Wednesday this week. I would just like to thank all parents for their responses and support. We will be able to tell you the outcomes in about 2 weeks when the report will be made available for you.

Macmillan cake sale: We would like to support the annual Macmillan coffee morning by holding a cake sale tomorrow, 29th September, straight after Praise Assembly at 3.30pm. Donations of any cakes -small or large, home-made or bought, biscuits, jam etc. would be greatly appreciated on Friday morning. Everyone welcome! Green accessories option: For a donation of 50p to Macmillan, children can add something green (in addition!) to their uniform (e.g. socks, hairband, hat etc.). Thank you!

Class 3: Mr Livesey will be back from Shanghai on Saturday and returning to class teaching from Monday.

Follow me pets service: 11am Sunday 1st October, St Mary's Broughton. All people and animals* welcome (*on leads or in cages please). Lunch is provided for people after the service, please bring a pack-up for your pet!
